ShareThis

The ultimate gift for cosmopolitan dog lovers. Dog poo bags, designed by jungeschachtel, are the most stylish, hygienic and environmentally friendly way to pick up that stinky stuff your canine leaves behind.

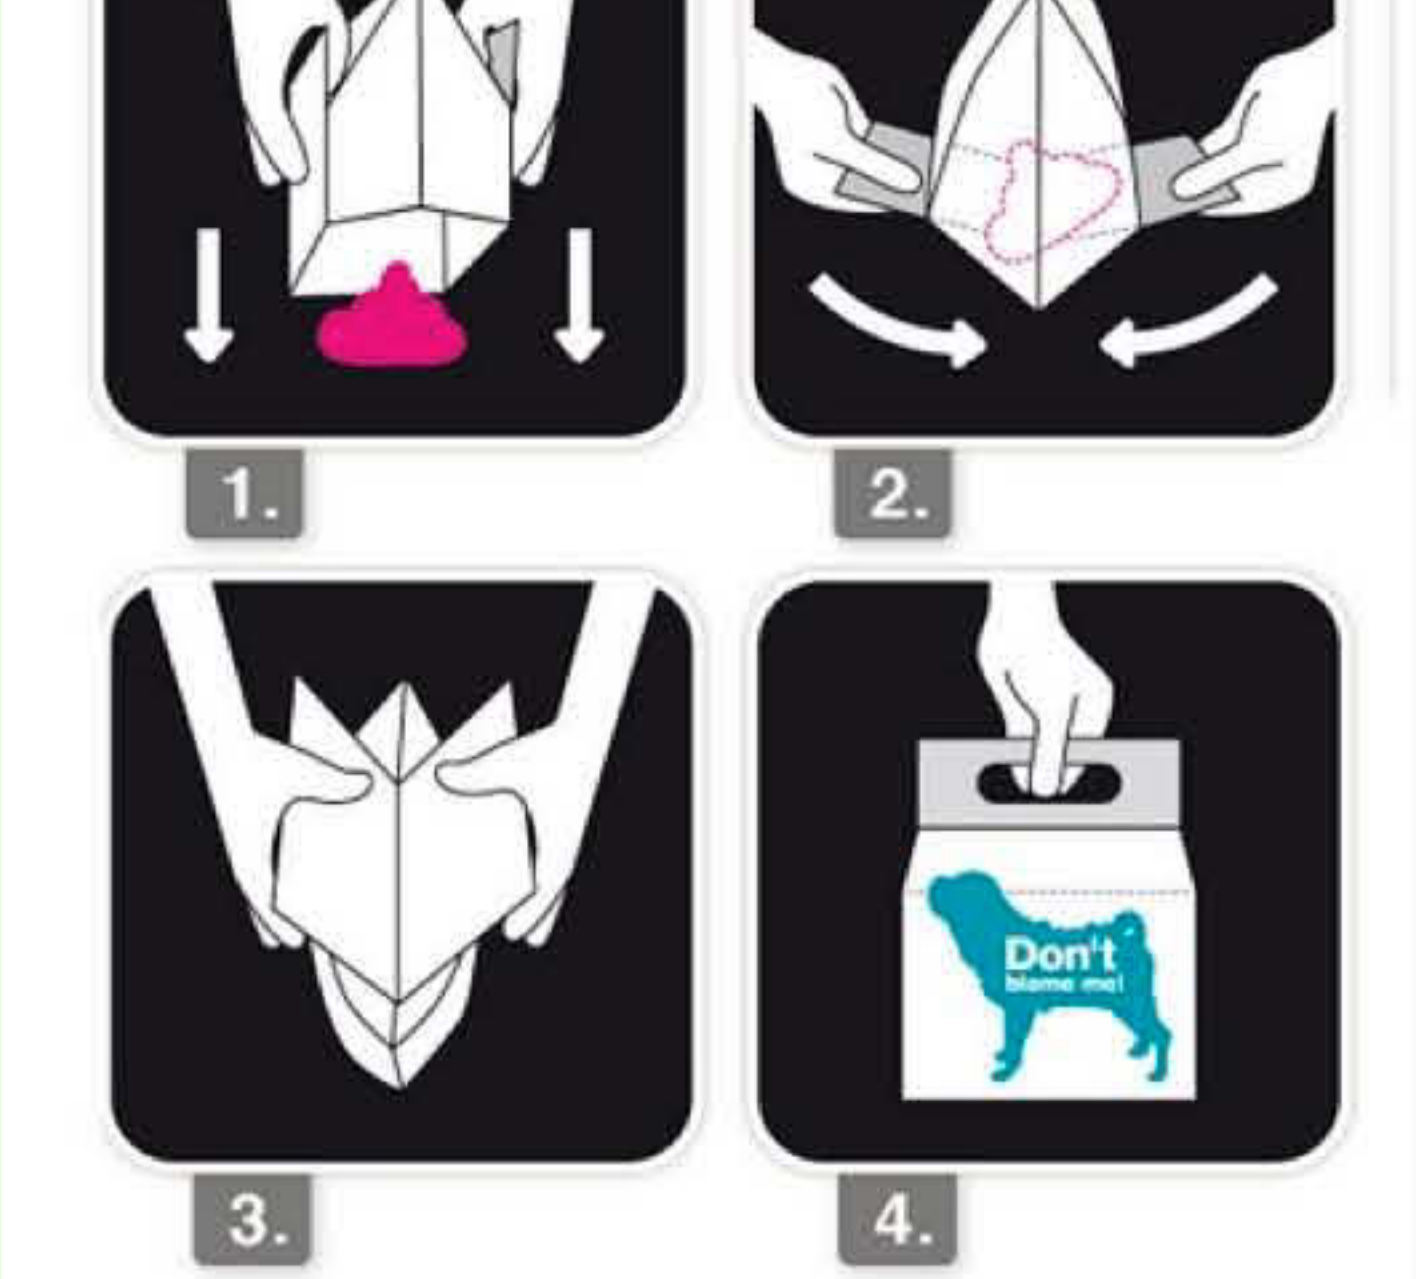

The packaging is beautiful, both the box in which the bags are packaged as well as the individual bags:

Each box contains 16 bags, two of each design shown below:

super easy to use, the bags are 100% biodegradable:

The idea for dog poo bags was born out of their passion for dogs and design. The daily walks with Cuno, the agency's dog (shown in the picture at the top of the post), served as a source of inspiration.

Dog poo bags are sold on designspray or directly from jungeschachtel here.
